About the University of Oxford

The University of Oxford is an independent self-governing university. It is the oldest university in the English-speaking world and has been in continuous existence for some nine centuries. It is an international leader in learning, teaching and research. As a collegiate institution, it comprises the central university and 39 colleges and 6 permanent private halls

University of Oxford Transcripts

The transcript should not be released to another person, organisation or institution except to officials internal to your own organisation or institution who have a reasonable business use for the information. Release to other parties requires the written consent of the student. The following information is provided to aid in the evaluation of this student's academic record. Further explanation or detailed information can be obtained by contacting Degree Conferals via the email address edocuments.support@admin.ox.ac.uk.

Under University regulations, Boards of Examiners may, where appropriate, take account of information additional to the profile of marks listed overleaf in deciding the final degree classification awarded to any student.

The explanatory text on the transcript is subject to change until such time that the programme of study is completed.

Academic Credit

The University does not routinely apply credit weightings to its programmes and its courses are not generally taught on a modular basis. We take each year of full-time undergraduate study to equal 120 UK credits and 180 UK credits for Masters-level postgraduate study according to the Higher Education Credit Framework for England. In relation to the European Credit Transfer Scheme (ECTS), this is equivalent to 60 credits for undergraduate study and 90 credits for Masters-level postgraduate study.
